RECTOR WRITES

Dear Friends,

Every year it seems that Christmas songs in the shops or on our radios are heard earlier and earlier each year as both retail and media contest to grab our attention for viewing numbers or sales.

Now I'm definitely not a Christmas Scrooge and I actually enjoy the build up to Christmas as I always feel it at least opens the opportunity to talk about the Christmas story. However, I do find it rather annoying when a Christmas tune gets into your head in the middle of November and you find yourself singing away to it without thinking. In the words of Peter Kays "Once Upon A Christmas Song" -

*You'll be singing this over and over, and over again
Every December you'll hear it and say
Turn it up, play it loud
Every Christmas should be the same
Singing it over and over, and over and over again
It's getting in your head (it's getting in your head)
And if you're not singing it all night
You'd be telling a lie*

Of course Christmas songs aren't renowned for their prize winning lyrics but many of you will remember when the battle for a Christmas Number 1 record created a real frenzy every year. As far back as 1973 we saw Slade's 'Merry Xmas Everybody' and Wizzard's 'I Wish It Could Be Christmas Everyday' go head to head, though amazingly in the end Wizzard only managed to hit number 4 despite now being seen as a Christmas classic. Eleven years later in 1984 we had Wham versus Band Aid, "Last Christmas" being another classic that didn't actually make it to number 1 in the charts. We've also had some bizarre contests through the years like in 2000 when our very own Westlife lost out to Bob the Builder.

With our media overload of the past few years it seems the frenzy over the Christmas number 1 has joined our lost traditions. Yet there's a song that sits at the very heart of Christmas that has the same ability to strike a chord in 2024 as it did when it was first sung by a young unmarried pregnant teenager over 2000 years ago.

Faced with the life changing, miraculous, unheard of, even the unbelievable revelation that this young woman was going to bear not only a child out of wedlock (something that was seen as so shameful at the time it could even lead to death) but that this child was to be God's saviour for the world, Mary rather than run away, sings arguably the most beautiful "Christmas Song" in history -

'My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour, for he has looked with favour on the lowliness of his servant.

Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed;
for the Mighty One has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.

His mercy is for those who fear him from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm;
he has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
He has brought down the powerful from their thrones,
and lifted up the lowly;
he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,
according to the promise he made to our ancestors,
to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.'

When Mary's faith was hit by crisis, when her world was turned upside down her soul magnified the Lord.

Advent gives us a time to ponder and reflect as we prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas. In the midst of the busyness, the shopping, the parties, the meals and that wonderful catchy Christmas music, will we take time to ponder?

As I pause and look back on 2024, a year that was filled with many memorable moments, but also with times of sadness and worry. A year filled with love but also the rise of hate. A year with war and uncertainty. A year when our Parish travelled to the other side of the world and at the same time reached out to our local community. A year where loved ones were lost and new births brought joy. A year when I shared many moments with so many of you in so many different ways, and a year in which I failed and let some of you down. A year when I, like all of us, had moments when both faith and doubt collided.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if the Christmas lyrics running around my head were not dreams of a white Christmas, or mistletoe and wine but rather the words of a young pregnant woman whose son was going to change the world forever. May my, and your, soul magnify the Lord.

I wish you all every blessing this Christmas. For some it will be full of love, joy and happiness, for others it will be different due to a loss of a loved one or a changed relationship. Some will be surrounded by family while others will reach out to family across the globe. However this Christmas is for you, I pray you will know the love of the one who came into the world and brought light into the darkness.

Rev Colin

A POEM FOR PEACE IN THE HOLY LANDS

As we continue to pray for peace in our world this Christmas, thinking especially of Ukraine and Russia and the Middle East, Rev Colin shares this poem with us to reflect upon.

A POEM FOR PEACE IN THE HOLY LANDS BY BEN OKRI

That the war must end, it is clear
Find a way, find a way
That does not mean the destruction
Of one people or another.
History, in its wisdom, in its terror,
Has brought us to this place
To this impossible mathematical
Equation where we cannot solve
The future with the past,
With blood or blame or bombs
Or unsustainable slogans.
I see a new future is possible there.
I see the lands fertile in tough
Invaluable collaboration.
I see that the desert will come alive
With music. I see two peoples finding
A new way. I see that this miracle
Is the only pragmatic path.
All that hatred, that anger, can
Only blossom into a miracle.
If vision and love can't bring us
There, then let all the suffering
Find for us a new road.

I see a shining land where
Two dreams surprise the world
By finding a way to coexist.
It would be the greatest Breakthrough of our times.
Who would dream it, make it
Real, while the bombs flower
And the children weep?

Who will find a
Way instead of
Taking a side?

Who will find a Way instead of
Taking a side?

As sure as I
Sit here staring
At the sky, I know
That this vision
Of peace
Must come to be.

It's an unavoidable destiny.

CHRISTMAS SHOWCASE

What a day of celebration our Christmas Showcase was to get us in the Christmas spirit!

We took a leap of faith and tried something new with the Winter Fair transformed into the Christmas Showcase, and what a day it was! Thank you for all who were prepared to try something new and allow us to learn how to transform from a traditional event into something new.

The mayor was opened by the Deputy Mayor JK who spent so much time looking around all the stalls and chatting to everyone. JK was joined by Senator Emer Currie, Rev Colin and Rev Natasha in cutting the ribbon to get proceedings underway.

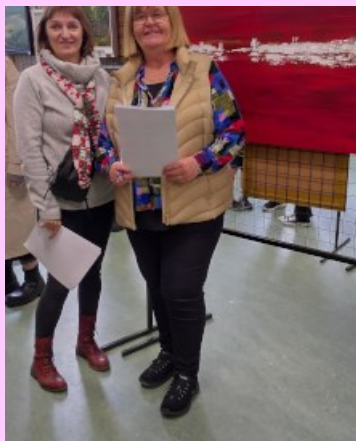

There was so many amazing stalls both inside and out including our delicious home baked goods, plant stall and parish crafts. A number of stallholders were parishioners and it was great to see them being so well supported. The art exhibition had around 100 paintings largely by locals and a few by church members including Rev Natasha.

During the day we were joined by Cineálta Choir who had great fun singing Christmas classics. Keeping with tradition Santa's arrival brought delight to both children and the not so young. The children also loved the face painting, balloon modelling and hair braiding and I even saw a few adults having a go.

Our teas, coffees and traybakes went down a treat along with the hot dogs and delicious Lebanese food. The raffle was well supported and it was lovely to see a number of parishioners pulled out of the drum!

Thank you to all who came along, all our vendors, everyone who supported in any way on the day. Above all I want to thank all the wonderful team of helpers who were magnificent all weekend. From the original planning to ensuring everything was ready in time and even coping with Storm Bert and a marquee blowing down all of our volunteers were magnificent and the event simply couldn't have happened without them. There are too many to mention by name but as Rector I want to thank them on behalf of all of us for making it a day to remember.

Next year we plan to go even bigger with plans already underway for a Christmas Tree Festival that we hope will be a huge hit with all in the community!

CHRISTMAS SHOWCASE

TINY TOTS

Tiny Tots is back in full swing on Thursday mornings in the Parish Centre. We were delighted to see a number of familiar faces returning to us after the summer break. We have also been very happy to see lots of new people joining in with us as the weeks are progressing. Our baby section this season is booming!

Our aim in Tiny Tots is to provide an inviting, safe and friendly space for parents, grandparents and carers to bring their pre-schoolers. During each Tiny Tots session we hope to provide cognitive, sensory and social stimulation for the children as well as a supportive environment for the adults attending with them. Most of all, we aim to have lots of fun!

Every week the children get to enjoy free play with a variety of toys. We always have a structured craft or sensory activity that they can join in with, followed by bubble time, and approximately twenty minutes of song time. The adults are encouraged to have a cuppa and a chat - we love getting to know everyone who comes to our group. Parties are definitely a highlight for our Tiny Tots - we have just had a Hallowe'en party, and our Christmas party is already planned for December - we've even asked a friend of ours from the North Pole to drop in to visit the children!!

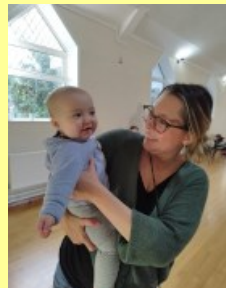

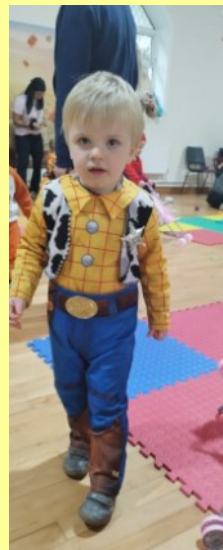

In keeping with our mission of outreach to the community, we organise a charity event once a term. In September we held a 'Big Coffee Morning for Hospice', raising €370 for St. Francis Hospice. Next term we plan to run our annual Beetle Drive to raise money for charity, so watch this space

Special thanks to the rest of the team who work so enthusiastically to make Tiny Tots such an enjoyable place to be: Rev. Natasha, Ada, Barbara, Diana, Xana and Margaret. We are always looking for more people to get involved – this could be with setting up, helping with the teas and coffees, or helping to lead activities. If you would like to get involved with the Tiny Tots team, or have any queries, please contact myself or Rev. Natasha.

If you have a baby or pre-schooler, please do come down and join us - we would love to meet you. Tiny Tots is open to everyone in our community. We meet every Thursday during school term time from 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. in the Parish Centre.

Look forward to seeing you there,

Louise McDonagh

Wedding Celebrations

Many congratulations to Keith and Darragh Snowe who were married on Thursday 31st October in St Mary's, Clonsilla.

Congratulations also to Luke and Julia O'Doherty who had their marriage blessed in the beautiful surroundings of Luttrellstown Castle on Saturday 9th November.

We wish both couples God's richest blessing as they begin married life.

Sunday Club Christmas Party and Messy Church

The Sunday Club will hold their Christmas Party on Sunday 8th December during the 11.30 a.m. service in St Brigid's, Castleknock.

On Sunday morning, 22nd December in Castleknock Parish Centre (11.30 a.m.) we have a special Christmas Messy Church with crafts, family worship and short talk. This is a great opportunity for young families especially to come together and discover the real meaning of Christmas in a fun way.

Holy Baptism

On Sunday 10th November we welcomed Molly into the family of the church through Holy Baptism. Molly was joined by her parents, sisters, Godparents and family and friends. We keep Molly and her family in our prayers.

Sharing and Caring Fund

The Caring and Sharing Fund is a discretionary fund that the Rector is able to use to help anyone in need throughout the year. There are envelopes in our churches during December if anyone would like to make a donation. If anyone would like some help, please speak to Rev Colin in the strictest confidence.

Condolences

On Sunday 24th November Anne Mooney passed away in Marymount Nursing Home at the wonderful age of 99. Some of you will remember Anne and her late husband Stephen for their wonderful ballroom dancing in the Parish Centre. Anne attended St Brigid's and the Wednesday morning Communion for many years. Anne's funeral took place in St Brigid's on Wednesday 27th November. Please keep Anne's family in your prayers.

Castleknock Ecumenical Graveyard Service

Following the marking of Remembrance Sunday on the morning of Sunday 10th November, in the afternoon we held our annual Ecumenical Graveyard Service with Blessing of the Graves in St Brigid's, Castleknock.

It's always a delight to welcome our good friend Father Damian as we welcomed a packed church from our local community who come to remember loved ones laid to rest in our graveyard.

A very generous collection on the day will be split between St Francis Hospice in Blanchardstown and the upkeep of the graveyard.

Food Bank

We continue to collect non-perishable food items for the local Food Bank. Donations can be left any Sunday in our churches with all donated items will be delivered to the food bank following the fourth Sunday of each month. We are requesting non-perishable food items, any items that are particularly needed will be highlighted in the church notice sheet.

St. Brigid's Big Church Clean up

Thanks to all who gave of their time on 7th November, both during the day and that evening, for the big clean and tidy up of St Brigid's.

As well as all the cleaning and tidying we carried out an investigation into how water was getting in to the church.

The church had a great clean and tidy ahead of the Graveyard Service and Advent and Christmas period.

Leaf Composter

Thank you to Clonsilla Tidy Towns who have sourced a leaf composter for St Mary's churchyard, Clonsilla. They are also helping us with volunteers to tidy up all the leaves.

Our Tidy towns groups do wonderful work in our communities so please support them in any way you can.

Craft Corner

We had a very creative morning at our October get-together. Emma introduced us to mosaics. We were given pre-cut colourful tiles, grouting and wooden coasters. Firstly, we decided on our design and then we carefully set the tiles in the spread grouting. Everyone went home with some beautiful original coasters. Thank you Emma!

Parish Christmas Card

By now hopefully the majority of parishioners will have received their Christmas card from the Parish. Again this year we held a competition in Castleknock National School to design the front cover with the theme for 2024 being "The Nativity".

There were many wonderful entries across the whole school and it was a very difficult task for the secret judging panel to pick a winner.

The winners were announced at the Christmas Showcase. As the judges were so impressed with the entries alongside the prize winners we had four designs that were highly commended; Poppy and Noah in the Junior Section and Claire and Eloise in the Senior Section.

The winner of the Junior Section was Conor, with Scott winning the Senior Section, both were presented with €20 Eason's vouchers.

The overall winner was Lauren who received a €40 Eason's voucher as well as having her design used for our Parish Christmas cards.

Well done to our winners and all who entered, we definitely have some budding artists in CNS!

Castleknock Christmas Lights

Castleknock Tidy Towns, in conjunction with Fingal County Council, will host the official lighting up of the Christmas Tree in Castleknock Village on Monday 2nd December at 6.30p.m..

This free event will begin inside St Brigid's Church on Castleknock Road with the Rev Colin McConaghie and Fr Damian McNeice in attendance. A short performance will be given by the award-winning St Brigid's National School choir under the direction of Ms Williams. Attendees will then move outside to watch the tree lighting up and some traditional Christmas Carols will be performed by the Castleknock Tennis Club Christmas Choir.

Light refreshments will be served inside St Brigid's Church immediately after the event. Everyone is welcome. Please do come along and enjoy this special community occasion.

NOTE: For safety reasons, no parking will be available either outside or within the churchyard of St Brigid's Church on Monday 2nd December.

We are delighted to be able to play a part in this community event.

Monthly Prayer Gathering

On Monday 13th January we meet in Castleknock Parish Centre for our first Prayer Gathering of 2025 as we pray for the year ahead. Please note the change of evening from our usual 3rd Monday slot as Rev Colin and Rev Natasha will be at the Clergy Conference.

It is so important that we pray for our churches, our community and one another so please plan to join us at our Monthly Prayer Gatherings when you can.

Castleknock National School

We were delighted to welcome Joyce Grainger to Assembly on the Friday before midterm to speak to the pupils about Team Hope and to encourage them to take time out over midterm to prepare shoeboxes for distribution to needy children in Africa or Eastern Europe.

The pupils and teachers rose to the challenge and once back from midterm the pile of shoeboxes grew and grew. In total 77 actual shoeboxes were filled with items to include the 4 W's – wash, wear, write and WOW. A number of school families also used Team Hope's facility to donate a virtual shoe box as well.

Some of the 5th class pupils helped to fill Joyce's car to the brim with the shoe boxes to bring them to the checking and distribution centre. She was delighted with the generosity of the pupils and staff again this year for this very worthy cause.

If you have a young person interested in being confirmed please contact Rev Colin, Rev Natasha or the Parish Office.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The week of Prayer for Christian Unity for 2025 takes place from 18th – 25th January. The guiding biblical text for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2025 comes from John 11:17-27. The theme for the week, "Do you believe this?" (v. 26), takes its cue from the dialogue between Jesus and Martha when Jesus visited the home of Martha and Mary in Bethany following the death of their brother Lazarus.

We look forward to once again joining with our friends from both Laurel Lodge and Beechpark RC churches with a special Taizé service in Our Lady of the Church. The date for the service is yet to be confirmed.
